

Where will you be
July 24th - July 27th, 2019?
We'll be in Washington DC for the 41st Annual National Peanut Pals
Convention!

Make your plans now to attend the 41st Annual Peanut Pals Convention in Washington DC. We have a full schedule of events for you to enjoy. Some changes have been made to the Convention with your input from last year's convention meeting...and still might have a tweak or two, but for now...

We'll start with an optional tour of the Lincoln Cottage on the 24th of July in the morning. This event will show you the cottage where Abe spent time to ponder over the issues and relax from the stress of the War.

President Lincoln's Cottage is a nontraditional "museum of ideas" that takes a fresh look at Lincoln's life and legacy in an authentic place — his beloved home. Most visitors experience the site through tours. The Robert H. Smith Visitor Education Center hosts permanent exhibits on Lincoln, the Civil War and the Soldiers' Home, as well as a special temporary exhibit gallery, which currently features American by Belief. This day trip will include a tour of the grounds and lunch on your own, at a local watering hole. $40 pp

- ◇ Registration will start @ 4 pm on 25th to 6 pm. Time for dinner from 6-7 pm, then room hopping from 7-8 pm. The hospitality room will reopen for additional registration and gathering from 8-10 pm with raffle and Chinese auction goodies to check out.
- ◇ Friday, July 26th starts with a tasty hot breakfast and then we roll right into our Convention Meeting @ 10 am. The swap meet set up is scheduled for 1 pm with the public invited in @ 2 pm 'til show close @ 4 pm. Saturday, July 27th, along with a special guest or two... And to try something new, the Silent Auction will be this evening in the Hospitality Room (8:00 pm to the whistle blows...under 30 minutes, with a few changes).
- ◇ Saturday, July 27th will have another healthy start with breakfast and the results of the Silent Auction at 11 am. Free time for you to explore if you choose to head out early, then Auction set up @ 1 pm. The Auction starts at 2 pm till its over. Time to get your bow tie and top hat on, as Cocktail hour is from 5-6 pm, followed by dinner, then dancing till the cows come home...or 11 pm.
- ◇ Sunday, we say good bye after breakfast and wish all Pals safe travels home.
- ◇ SEE YOU THERE!
